

BIO

Diana Panton

vocal

Diana Panton is one of the brightest lights on the jazz scene today. Her raw emotive expression and strong aesthetic vision have earned her numerous honours, including two JUNO wins, seven JUNO nominations and two Silver Disc Awards in Japan. Her critically acclaimed self-produced albums have been highlighted on year-end lists, including those of DownBeat, Japan's Jazz Critique Magazine, Radio Canada's ICI Musique, NOW Magazine and The Montreal Mirror. Panton's albums have made the bestseller lists in Hong Kong, Japan and Taiwan, as well as #1 on Amazon and iTunes in Canada and the US. Panton has appeared on the magazine covers of NOW, Hamilton Magazine, VIEW, InRetro etc. She was one of four vocalists selected worldwide to perform in France at Jazz à Juan Révélections where she was voted Première Dauphine by the Juan public. Her latest release showcases one of today's top jazz vocalists in full command of her interpretive powers. Panton "defines tonal sweetness and purity of expression" (Frank-John Hadley, DownBeat).